Supporting snooker champ Theresa Whitten

The Canberra Highland Society & Burns Club is proud to support Theresa Whitten in the International Billiards and Snooker Federation (IBSF) world teams and 6-red snooker championships.

Canberra Burns Club president, Athol Chalmers said: “Theresa, who plays for the Burns Club in the Billiards and Snooker Association of ACT’s A Grade is a terrific ambassador for the Burns Club and ACT sport and we wish her well in the competition.”

“Theresa practises several times a week at the Burns Club, and is no stranger to the international leagues. In 2015, she won the Oceania Women’s Snooker Championships and the NSW State Women’s Snooker Championship,” Mr Chalmers said.

Ms Whitten said her ambition was to win an Australian title and to continue to compete for Australia in IBSF world championship events. “The Burns Club also supported me to travel to the world snooker championships where I reached the last 16. I was pretty proud of that!”

Theresa will be competing in late July at the titles, which will be held at Sharm el Shiek in Egypt.
